

Safety Slogan Lottery Winner

While it is not quite Mega Millions, this safety slogan lottery will get everyone involved!

1. Place all employee/student names in a hat or bag.
2. Every day or every week (depending on the size of the workforce/school), the manager/teacher posts a safety slogan to all company/school bulletin boards.
3. At any point during the day, the manager/teacher approaches the employee/student whose name has been drawn and asks the employee/student to quote the safety slogan of the day.

If the employee/student can quote the safety slogan, the employee/student receives a lottery ticket. If not, the manager/teacher adds the lottery ticket to the ticket award the following day or week, increasing the ticket award value. When an employee/student is able to quote the safety slogan accurately, that employee/student receives the entire number of tickets.

The next day or week the contest starts again with a new lottery ticket. At the end of the week or series of weeks the winning lottery ticket number is drawn for the lottery prize. (Main promo item) (use dollar store 50/50 tickets)
